

ISO certification

About ISO

ISO stands for International Organization for Standardization. It is an international standardization mechanism consisting of the representative standardization mechanisms of all countries and it creates the international standards for all industries (mining, agriculture, pharmaceutical products, etc.), except for the electrical and electronic technologies.

ISO9001 (Quality management standards)

ISO14001 (Environmental Management System)

